PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: [Insert launch date] · Last Updated: [Insert date]

1. Introduction

Finchase Capital Private Limited ("Finchase Capital," "we," "us," "our"), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013 (CIN: U64990MP2025PTC076109), registered with the Registrar of Companies, Gwalior, and based in Indore, Madhya Pradesh, is committed to protecting the privacy of every visitor, prospective client, and user of our website (finchasecapital.in) and its associated tools, forms, and services (collectively, the "Site").

This Privacy Policy explains what personal data we collect, why we collect it, how we use, store, and protect it, and what rights you have over it. This Policy is drafted with reference to the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 ("DPDP Act") and applicable rules issued thereunder, and reflects our obligations as a "Data Fiduciary" under that law.

By using the Site, submitting any form, or otherwise providing us personal data, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this Policy.

2. Data We Collect

We collect personal data only where it is necessary for a clearly identified purpose. Depending on how you interact with the Site, this may include:

2.1 Information you provide directly

- Name, phone number, email address, and LinkedIn profile URL (via consultation, contact, newsletter, or "Start the Conversation" forms)
- Business-related information you choose to share — business stage, a description of your business or idea, the problem it addresses, and the nature of assistance sought
- Any file you voluntarily upload (e.g., a pitch deck or presentation) or link you provide (e.g., a video walkthrough)
- Any figures or inputs you enter into our free self-serve calculators/Tools (e.g., indicative revenue, EBITDA, loan amount) — these are processed to generate an on-screen result and are addressed separately in Section 6

- Correspondence you send us by email, WhatsApp, or through any form on the Site

2.2 Information collected automatically

- Technical data such as IP address, browser type and version, device type, operating system, referring URL, and pages visited
- Cookies and similar tracking technologies (see Section 7)
- Approximate location inferred from IP address (city/region level only, not precise geolocation)

2.3 Information from third parties

- We do not purchase personal data about you from third-party data brokers. Where we use third-party tools (e.g., web fonts, icon libraries, analytics) as described in Section 8, those providers may independently collect limited technical data governed by their own privacy policies.

3. How and Why We Use Your Data

We use personal data only for the following purposes, and only to the extent reasonably necessary for each:

Purpose	Data Used	Basis
Responding to a general enquiry or consultation request	Name, phone, email, message content	Your consent, given by submitting the form
Reviewing a confidential business/startup submission	Name, phone, email, LinkedIn, business details, uploaded file/video	Your consent, given by submitting the form
Sending a requested newsletter	Email address	Your explicit opt-in consent
Operating and improving the Tools/calculators	Inputs you provide (processed transiently, see Section 6)	Your voluntary use of the tool
Maintaining the security and proper functioning of the Site	Technical/log data	Our legitimate interest in Site integrity
Complying with legal, tax, and regulatory record-keeping obligations	Client and engagement records, where an engagement has commenced	Legal obligation

We do not use your personal data for any purpose beyond what it was collected for, without seeking fresh consent.

4. Consent

Where the DPDP Act requires consent as the basis for processing, we obtain that consent through your affirmative act of submitting a form, checking a consent box, or subscribing to a communication. Consent requests are kept specific, informed, and are not bundled with unrelated permissions. You may withdraw consent at any time (see Section 9), though withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before withdrawal, and may mean we are unable to respond to an enquiry already in progress.

5. How We Store and Protect Your Data

- Data submitted through the Site is transmitted over encrypted connections (HTTPS) and stored on infrastructure that encrypts data at rest.
- Access to submitted data — particularly confidential business/startup submissions — is restricted to specifically authorized members of our internal team on a need-to-know basis. It is not made publicly accessible, searchable, or indexable by search engines.
- Uploaded files are stored in access-controlled storage; they are not placed at a publicly guessable or shareable link.
- We apply reasonable technical measures (including rate-limiting and bot/spam protection on public-facing forms) to guard against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction of your data, in line with the "reasonable security safeguards" standard expected under the DPDP Act.
- No system can be guaranteed completely secure; while we take these precautions seriously, we cannot warrant absolute security of data transmitted to us.

6. Data Entered Into Our Free Tools/Calculators

Figures you enter into any calculator on our Tools page (e.g., a revenue figure for the tax estimator, a loan amount for the EMI calculator) are processed in your browser or transiently on our servers solely to generate the displayed result. Unless you separately submit that information through a consultation or "Start the Conversation" form, we do not permanently store the specific figures you enter into a calculator, and they are not linked to your identity.

7. Cookies and Tracking

The Site may use cookies and similar technologies to:

- Remember basic preferences and session state

- Understand aggregate usage patterns (e.g., which pages are visited) to improve the Site
- Support security features such as bot protection on our forms

You can control or disable cookies through your browser settings. Disabling cookies may affect certain functionality of the Site. Where required, we will present a cookie consent mechanism allowing you to accept or decline non-essential cookies before they are set.

8. Third-Party Services

We use a limited number of third-party service providers strictly to operate the Site, including but not limited to: web font and icon delivery services, form-handling/relay services, hosting and content-delivery infrastructure, and email delivery services for notifications. These providers act as data processors on our behalf and are contractually or by policy bound to use data only for the purpose of providing their service to us. We do not sell, rent, or trade your personal data to any third party for their independent marketing purposes.

We may disclose personal data where required by law, regulation, court order, or governmental request, or where necessary to protect our legal rights.

9. Your Rights

Subject to applicable law, including the DPDP Act, you have the right to:

- Access the personal data we hold about you
- Correct or update inaccurate or incomplete data
- Withdraw consent for further processing at any time
- Request erasure of your personal data, where it is no longer necessary for the purpose it was collected, subject to any legal retention obligations we may have
- Nominate another individual to exercise these rights on your behalf in the event of your death or incapacity, as provided under the DPDP Act
- Lodge a grievance with our Grievance Officer (see Section 12), and thereafter, if unresolved, with the Data Protection Board of India

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us using the details in Section 12.

10. Data Retention

We retain personal data only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purpose it was collected, or as required by applicable law (including tax and company-law record-keeping requirements):

- General enquiry/contact form data: retained for a reasonable period to allow us to respond and follow up, and reviewed periodically thereafter
- Confidential business/startup submissions: retained and reviewed on an annual basis; submissions with no further engagement or activity are flagged for internal review and considered for deletion
- Newsletter subscriber data: retained until you unsubscribe
- Client and engagement records (where a formal engagement exists): retained in line with applicable professional and statutory record-keeping requirements

11. Children's Data

The Site is intended for use by business owners, founders, and professionals, and is not directed at, nor knowingly collects personal data from, individuals under the age of 18. If we become aware that we have inadvertently collected data from a minor, we will take steps to delete it.

12. Grievance Officer / Contact

For any questions, concerns, or requests relating to this Privacy Policy or your personal data, please contact our Grievance Officer:

Mr. Jagdish

Grievance Officer, Finchase Capital Private Limited

Phone: +91 95680 00088

13. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices, technology, legal requirements, or other factors. The "Last Updated" date at the top of this Policy will indicate when it was last revised. Material changes will be indicated on this page; continued use of the Site after such changes constitutes your acceptance of the revised Policy.

TERMS OF USE

Effective Date: [Insert launch date] · Last Updated: [Insert date]

1. Acceptance of Terms

These Terms of Use ("Terms") govern your access to and use of the website operated by Finchase Capital Private Limited (CIN: U64990MP2025PTC076109), a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 2013 and registered with the Registrar of Companies, Gwalior ("Finchase Capital," "we," "us," "our"), including all pages, tools, calculators, and forms available on it (collectively, the "Site"). By accessing or using the Site, you agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree, please discontinue use of the Site.

2. Who This Site Is For

The Site is intended for founders, business owners, professionals, and members of the public seeking general information about financial, tax, regulatory, and advisory matters relevant to businesses in India. It is not directed at individuals under the age of 18.

3. Nature of Content — Not Professional Advice

This is the most important section of these Terms and applies to all content on the Site, including Insights articles, service descriptions, and Tools/calculators.

All content published on the Site — including articles, checklists, FAQs, and the output of any calculator or self-serve instrument — is provided for general informational purposes only. It does not constitute, and should not be relied upon as, professional tax, legal, financial, investment, or accounting advice specific to your circumstances.

- Nothing on the Site creates an advisor-client, professional, or fiduciary relationship between you and Finchase Capital. Such a relationship is only formed through a separately executed engagement letter or agreement.
- Figures generated by any calculator on the Tools page are indicative estimates only, based on stated assumptions, simplified formulas, and rates that may not reflect your specific situation and may become outdated as laws, rates, or thresholds change. Each tool states the assumptions and, where applicable, the date those assumptions were last verified.
- You must independently verify any figure, rate, or conclusion, and consult a qualified professional (chartered accountant, company secretary, lawyer, or other relevant advisor) before making any financial, legal, tax, or business decision.
- We do not guarantee that any content on the Site is complete, accurate, current, or applicable to your circumstances at the time you access it.

4. No Guarantee of Outcomes

References on the Site to past client outcomes, case studies, or representative figures describe patterns we have observed across client engagements. Unless expressly stated otherwise, they are illustrative and representative in nature, not verified, audited, or guaranteed claims about any specific client, and past outcomes are not indicative of results you may achieve.

5. Intellectual Property

All content on the Site — including but not limited to text, articles, graphics, logos, the Finchase Capital name and mark, tool designs, calculator logic, and page layouts — is the property of Finchase Capital Private Limited or its licensors and is protected under applicable intellectual property laws. You may view and use the Site for your own personal or internal business reference. You may not reproduce, republish, distribute, modify, or create derivative works from any part of the Site without our prior written permission, except for brief quotation with clear attribution.

6. Submissions Through Our Forms

6.1 General enquiry and consultation forms. Information submitted through our contact or consultation forms is used solely to respond to your enquiry, as described in our Privacy Policy.

6.2 "Start the Conversation" submissions. Where you submit information about a business idea, startup, or venture through our "Start the Conversation" page:

- We treat all such submissions as confidential and do not disclose, publish, or share the substance of your submission with any third party without your consent, except as required by law.
- By submitting your idea to us, you do not grant, transfer, or license Finchase Capital any ownership interest, intellectual property right, or usage right in your idea, business, or materials. Your submission is reviewed solely for the purpose of determining whether and how we may assist you, and for no other purpose.
- If you wish to enter into a formal, mutually signed non-disclosure agreement before sharing further detail, you may request one prior to submission by contacting us.
- We reserve the right to decline to engage with any submission at our sole discretion, without obligation to provide reasons.

7. Prohibited Uses

You agree not to:

- Submit false, misleading, or fraudulent information through any form on the Site
- Use any automated means (bots, scrapers, crawlers) to access, copy, or extract content or data from the Site without our prior written consent
- Attempt to gain unauthorized access to any part of the Site, its underlying systems, or any data not intended for public access
- Use the Site's forms to transmit spam, malware, or any unlawful content
- Use the Site in any manner that could disable, overburden, damage, or impair it

8. Third-Party Links

The Site may contain links to third-party websites or resources. We do not control and are not responsible for the content, accuracy, or practices of any linked third-party site. Inclusion of a link does not imply endorsement.

9. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Finchase Capital Private Limited, its directors, employees, and representatives shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, or special damages arising out of or in connection with your use of, or inability to use, the Site, including but not limited to reliance on any content, tool output, or calculator result available on it. Nothing in these Terms shall be construed to limit liability that cannot be excluded under applicable law.

10. Indemnity

You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Finchase Capital Private Limited and its directors, employees, and representatives from any claim, loss, liability, or expense (including reasonable legal fees) arising from your misuse of the Site, your breach of these Terms, or your violation of any applicable law or third-party right.

11. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms are governed by the laws of India. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with these Terms or your use of the Site shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts at Indore, Madhya Pradesh.

12. Severability

If any provision of these Terms is found to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

13. Changes to These Terms

We may revise these Terms from time to time. The "Last Updated" date will reflect the most recent revision. Continued use of the Site after changes are posted constitutes acceptance of the revised Terms.

14. Contact

Questions about these Terms may be directed to our Grievance Officer:

Mr. Jagdish · Phone: +91 95680 00088

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL POLICY

Effective Date: [Insert launch date] · Last Updated: [Insert date]

1. Our Commitment

Finchase Capital Private Limited is committed to addressing concerns, complaints, and grievances raised by visitors, prospective clients, and users of our Site promptly, fairly, and confidentially. This Policy explains how to raise a grievance and what you can expect from us in response.

2. What This Policy Covers

This Grievance Redressal Policy applies to concerns relating to:

- The handling, storage, or protection of your personal data
- Any breach of the confidentiality assurances given on our "Start the Conversation" page or elsewhere on the Site
- The quality, conduct, or manner of any engagement or interaction with our team
- Any other complaint regarding your experience with the Site or our services

3. Grievance Officer

In accordance with applicable law, we have appointed a Grievance Officer to receive and address concerns:

Mr. Jagdish

Grievance Officer, Finchase Capital Private Limited

Phone: +91 95680 00088

4. How to Raise a Grievance

You may raise a grievance by contacting our Grievance Officer directly by phone at the number above, or through the contact form available on our Site, clearly marking your submission as a grievance. Please provide sufficient detail — including your name, contact information, and a clear description of the concern — to allow us to investigate promptly.

5. Our Response Process

- Acknowledgement: We will acknowledge receipt of your grievance within 48 hours.
- Resolution: We aim to investigate and resolve grievances within 30 days of acknowledgement. If a matter requires additional time due to its complexity, we will inform you of the delay and the expected timeline.
- Communication: You will be kept informed of the status of your grievance and the outcome of our review.

6. Escalation

If you are not satisfied with the resolution provided by our Grievance Officer, you may:

- Request escalation to a senior partner of the firm for further review, or

- Where the grievance relates to the conduct of a Chartered Accountant in the course of professional services, raise the matter with the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) through its applicable grievance/disciplinary mechanism, or
- Where the grievance relates to personal data protection and remains unresolved, approach the Data Protection Board of India as provided under the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023.

7. No Retaliation

Raising a grievance in good faith will never adversely affect how you, your enquiry, or any existing engagement with our firm is treated. We are committed to addressing every concern on its merits, fairly and without prejudice.

8. Confidentiality of Grievances

Grievances are handled confidentially and shared only with those within our organization who need to be involved in investigating and resolving the matter.

PROFESSIONAL & ETHICAL CONDUCT POLICY

Effective Date: [Insert launch date] · Last Updated: [Insert date]

1. Purpose

This Professional & Ethical Conduct Policy sets out the principles that govern how Finchase Capital Private Limited and its team conduct themselves in every client relationship, engagement, and interaction — including prospective relationships formed through enquiries and confidential submissions received via our Site. It is intended to give clients, prospective clients, and the public a clear and honest account of the standards we hold ourselves to.

2. Adherence to the ICAI Code of Ethics

Our practice is led by professionals qualified as Chartered Accountants and bound by the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). We adhere to its fundamental principles in every engagement:

- Integrity — being straightforward and honest in all professional and business relationships
- Objectivity — not allowing bias, conflict of interest, or undue influence to override professional judgment
- Professional competence and due care — maintaining the knowledge and skill required to provide a competent professional service, and acting diligently in accordance with applicable technical and professional standards

- Confidentiality — respecting the confidentiality of information acquired through professional and business relationships, and not disclosing such information without proper authority, except where there is a legal or professional right or duty to disclose
- Professional behaviour — complying with relevant laws and regulations and avoiding any conduct that discredits the profession

3. Independence and Conflicts of Interest

We take reasonable steps to identify and manage situations where advising one client could create a conflict with the interests of another client, or with the interests of the firm itself.

Where such a conflict is identified:

- We assess whether the engagement can proceed with appropriate safeguards (such as separate teams or information barriers)
- Where a conflict cannot be adequately managed, we will decline or discontinue the engagement, and inform the affected party as appropriate
- We do not accept engagements where our independence or objectivity would be genuinely compromised

4. Confidentiality Commitment

Confidentiality is treated as a professional obligation, not merely a courtesy. This applies equally to:

- Information shared by clients in the course of a formal engagement
- Information shared by prospective clients or founders through our "Start the Conversation" page or any enquiry
- Business ideas, financial data, and personal information shared with us prior to any engagement being formalized

We do not disclose, use, or reference confidential information for any purpose other than that for which it was shared, and access to such information within our team is limited to those directly involved in reviewing or acting on it. Where requested, we are willing to formalize this commitment through a mutually signed non-disclosure agreement before detailed information is exchanged.

5. Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption

We do not offer, give, solicit, or accept bribes, kickbacks, or improper payments or advantages, whether directly or through any third party, in connection with our business dealings. Our team is expected to conduct all business relationships — with clients, regulators, and other professionals — with integrity and free from any form of improper inducement.

6. Fair Dealing

We are committed to:

- Representing our qualifications, experience, and the scope of our services accurately, and not overstating outcomes we can guarantee
- Communicating our fees and the basis on which they are charged clearly, before an engagement begins
- Not making misleading claims about our services, tools, or past client outcomes anywhere on our Site or in our communications

7. Compliance with Law

We conduct our practice in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations governing our profession and business, including but not limited to the Chartered Accountants Act, 1949 and ICAI regulations, the Companies Act, 2013, applicable tax legislation, and the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023.

8. Reporting Concerns

Any concern regarding a departure from the principles set out in this Policy — whether raised by a client, prospective client, or any other party — may be directed to our Grievance Officer as set out in our Grievance Redressal Policy.

9. Review of This Policy

This Policy is reviewed periodically to ensure it continues to reflect our professional obligations and the standards we hold ourselves to. The "Last Updated" date above reflects the most recent review.

A few things worth deciding before these go live:

1. Effective/Last Updated dates — placeholder left in each; tell me the launch date and I'll fill these in.
2. Cookie usage — I've written Section 7 of the Privacy Policy to be accurate whether or not you currently use analytics/tracking cookies; let me know what you actually have running (Google Analytics, Meta Pixel, etc., if any) so I can make that section fully precise rather than generic.
3. Contact email addresses — I've referenced Mr. Jagdish's phone number throughout per your instruction; if you'd like a dedicated grievance email address alongside the phone number (recommended, since written grievances create a paper trail), let me know what to use and I'll add it in.
